Trinity United Parish

The mission of Trinity United Parish is to be a loving community of faith. Our faith in Jesus Christ is expressed through learning, growing and caring together.

Dear Friends,

The mission of the United Methodist Church is to "make disciples for the transformation of the world."

That involves a lot of communication. So I thought I would share with you some useful websites for you to explore....

UMC.org is a general website for all things United Methodist.

WisconsinUMC.org has information about the United Methodist Church in Wisconsin, from lay leadership to budgets to missions. You can subscribe to a week e-newsletter, if you want.

UMCdiscipleship.org has stuff about worship, youth ministry, leadership and more. An interesting part of it is seeallthepeople.org.

Umnews.org gives weekly news updates about things going on in churches, United Methodist Camps, and ministries around the world.

UMCMission.org tells about the mission work of our Board of Global Ministries around the world.

UMCjustice.org is the site of our Board of Church and Society, speaking to issues of justice in the world.

Through these websites you can follow links to even more.

I am proud to be United Methodist. On these websites I read about work our church is doing to promote health, help in relief and recovery from disaster, grow Christian Community in all sorts of places and challenge individuals to live to their God-given potential.

Nursery Book Drive

We are inviting the congregation to donate good children's books in good condition to the nursery rooms at both Moundville and Briggsville churches. We need board books for small children and story books for older children. They need not be Bible story books, but we would like stories with good and positive messages. You may also give money if you like to purchase books.

Heritage House Worship

The service is the second Monday of each month at 10:30 a.m. There's a small room set aside just for this. The service is conducted just like our regular church services only shorter. Much singing and request for songs, and residents mention those in their lives needing prayers. Jim has a short sermon, similar to Sunday's and we also have communion. Anyone is welcome to come and be a part of this. Jane and Jerry, Carol Brancel and I were there today, and Sally plays the piano. Today there were 10 residents present and they enjoy it and some like to stay a bit afterwards just to talk.

Moundville

Many thanks to the Moundville Trustees and friends who are working to improve the Moundville kitchen so that it will be more convenient and we can better practice food safety.

Some things you can expect to see in the near future:

- a permanent island in the middle of the kitchen with storage underneath
- a dedicated handwashing sink
- a mop sink in the storage room
- dispensers for three sizes of disposable gloves

Besides this, both churches are working on dishwashing procedure and equipment so that we can use three containers for soapy water, rinse water and sanitizing solution. We also plan to have more space in drying racks so that we can let our dishes air dry. We will keep on improving and making it better.

Just a reminder: if you have meeting minutes that have not been turned in, please send them to the church office as soon as you can. Thank you!

Ukraine and the Methodist Church Presence There

A recent online article in UMNews.org, highlights the involvement of the United Methodist Church in Ukraine during this past three years of war. The overall goal has been to boost moral and get good clothing, medical care and other necessities to those in need in Ukraine – which is almost everyone.

One way in which the United Methodist Church is helping is to provide shelter. About 40 people, mostly women and children are staying at Under the Castle, a sanctuary near Kam'yanytsya, purchased in 2024 through a grant from the United Methodist Committee on Relief. People from occupied areas or active war zones can stay for free and are given food twice a day. The goal is to convert Under the Castle into a rehabilitation center for war-related trauma.

UMCOR recently announced two grants worth more than 1.5 million that will go to new housing in Kremenchuk and provide support for people living in Uzhhorod. The second will be used in Odessa, Mykolaiv and Kherson Oblasts for repairing shelters and improving accessibility for disabled people, elderly and veterans in public places and for housing and transportation.

United Methodist Bishop Christian Alsted, who recently retired as bishop of Northern Europe and Eurasia Central Conference that includes Ukraine, has much to say about these last three years. He says that right from the start of the war “the church was very active in helping people to move on, offering them a place to stay, and then helping them as they wanted to move on to Europe. I would say the most important thing has been to be present, to talk to people, to encourage, try to bring some hope. I listen to their stories.”

Although Bishop Alsted is partially retired, he will continue to help Ukraine. He says there are many ways to help besides donations and prayers:

- *reaching out on social media with a message of support
- *if Ukraine is victorious, there will be a need for missionaries, doctors, nurses and people who are trained to work with people suffering from post-traumatic stress syndrome

For those wishing to provide assistance to the Ukrainian people, you may contribute to Global Ministries Advance #982450, UMCOR's International Disaster Response and Recovery, a fund that will provide direct assistance to those in Ukraine as well as to Ukrainians who have fled to neighboring countries.
